

West, Russia Agree On Austrian Treaty

Will Strive To Get Along In Germany

Paris, June 20—(AP)—The western powers and Russia to-night cleared away obstacles to an Austrian independence treaty and agreed to try to get along better in Germany.

These were the results of a four-week conference of the Council of Foreign Ministers which ended here in a flurry of excitement as Russia sought unsuccessfully to make a last minute change in the Big Four's communiqué.

Russia promised not to reimpose a blockade of Berlin, in return for efforts to revive East-West trade in Germany. This was contained in a six-point statement of principles by the Big Four to guide negotiations in Germany.

Meets Soviet Claim
The West met the $150,000,000 Soviet claim on Austria for German assets. The Russians tossed overboard their support of Yugoslav Premier Marshal Tito by dropping their support of Yugoslav claims on Austria. These developments cleared the way for an Austrian treaty which the ministers told their deputies to produce by Sept. 1.

American spokesmen were not optimistic in evaluating results of the conference. U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson had no comment for publication.

Work on the Austrian treaty was described as "substantial steps" forward and important because it will free Austria and push Soviet troops farther back into eastern Europe. It is felt that ground has been neither gained nor lost in Germany, with the possibility that the principles agreed on may mean a lessening of tension between the East and West, particularly in Berlin.

Runs On Defensive
One official U. S. spokesman said the Russians showed clearly they are on the defensive in Germany and trying to hold to what they have. They are no longer in a position to advance into western Germany, he said.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky provided the last-minute fireworks for a conference remarkable for its dullness.

At a closed afternoon meeting he agreed to a Big Four statement of conference results, which was released for publication at 8 p.m. (1 p.m. CST).

As Acheson prepared to leave for his plane en route to Washington and British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin headed for his special train and London, Vishinsky sent word he wanted the communiqué held up. He also wanted a new Big Four meeting. He said he had new instructions from Moscow.

Republicans Seize Byrnes Statement On Welfare Plan

Washington, June 20—(AP)—Republicans had an oratorical field day today quoting a democrat, James P. Byrnes, on the dangers of a "welfare state."

Byrnes, former secretary of state, piloted many New Deal measures through congress as senator and administration leader. He said in a speech Saturday that if some proposed federal programs are adopted there is danger everyone "will be an economic slave pulling an oar in the galley of the state."

Republicans in both the House and the Senate gleefully picked it up. This touched off some bitter exchanges among democrats.

Grimacing broadly, Senator Bridges (R-NH) called Byrnes a great statesman who now "is taking the blinders off the American people." He said he hoped it impressed congress.

Then Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) tore into the Byrnes speech and defended the programs of the 1948 democratic platform.

Delay Moran Case
Because Of Illness
Chicago, June 20—(AP)—Jackie Moran, 26, former child movie star charged with transporting a stolen automobile across a state line, has been released on his own recognizance pending recovery from a skin ailment.

Moran is undergoing treatment at the Marine hospital here. He is scheduled for arraignment before U. S. Commissioner Edwin K. Walker when he recovers sufficiently to appear in court.

He is charged with driving a stolen car from Jacksonville, Fla., to Charleston, S. C.

Springfield, Ill., June 20—(AP)—of Republicans and Democrats by Governor Stevenson's bill is to free the 500 man state police force of political control cleared the Illinois legislature today.

The Republican controlled senate approved them by a 46-0 vote and advanced the bills to Stevenson for his enacting signature.

Under the legislation, the police force will contain an equal number

Coplon Says Fear Led To Suspicious Moves To Russian

By Roger D. Greene
Washington, June 20—(AP)—Judith Coplon testified at her espionage trial today she was "struck dumb with fear and terror" when her Russian sweetheart hinted that the Soviet secret police might be on their trail.

The dark-eyed defendant swore that fear for her life lay behind the furtiveness of her actions when she met her admirer, Valentine A. Gubichev, 32, a married Russian and former United Nations employee.

"Did you know that the NKVD (Russian secret police) is supposed to murder silently? Did you read that in FBI reports?" asked defense Attorney Archibald Palmer.

"Yes," Miss Coplon said. The government contends that Miss Coplon, 28-year-old former justice department analyst, went through elaborate zig-zag tactics in an attempt to throw FBI agents off the track when she met Gubichev in New York.

Testifying in her own defense for the third straight day, Miss Coplon said Gubichev told her on various occasions (a) that his wife had detectives following him and (b) that he thought the NKVD might be shadowing him. Miss Coplon was still on the stand when court recessed for the day. She is expected to finish her story Tuesday.

Witnesses Testify Shellabarger Sane When Will Made

Sycamore, Ill., June 20—(AP)—Three witnesses to the will of Edward Shellabarger testified today the 94-year-old industrialist was mentally sound when he left $100,000 to his housekeeper.

Earlier today, Circuit Judge William R. Dushier held that no undue influence was used on the old man when he made his bequest.

Dushier's ruling was given in the trial of a will contest suit brought by two children and two grandchildren of Shellabarger.

Atty. Frank R. Reid, Jr., of Aurora, Walter W. Fisher, former DeKalb alderman, and Edith M. Jensen, Shellabarger's housemaid, all witnesses to the will, testified to the industrialist's mental health, when he left the money to Miss Rowena Potts, the housekeeper.

Reid completed the legal work on the will after it was started by his law partner, DeKalb County Judge, Latham Castle. Judge Castle also testified to Shellabarger's mental soundness.

Reid denied the charge of Louis C. Clay, a negro handyman, who earlier had testified that Reid had offered him $2,000 to sign a statement concerning the industrialist's mental condition.

Auto Production Nears New Record

Detroit, June 21—(AP)—American automobile producers are building toward all-time monthly assembly records this summer. But the trade paper Automotive News today expressed doubt they would hit a fabulous 6,000,000 figure for the year.

Weekly output for United States plants is up to a 20-year record volume, the trade paper said, estimating last week's production at 138,197 cars and trucks.

The month of June likely will show a post-war production high of more than 600,000 vehicles, boosting the half-year total of 3,022,648. Automotive News said.

U. S. SPENDING LESS ON ALCOHOLIC DRINKS

Washington, June 20—(AP)—Americans reduced their expenditures on whiskey, beer and wine in 1948 for the first time in a decade, the Commerce department reported today.

The 1948 total outlay on alcoholic drinks was estimated by the department at $8,800,000,000, a decrease of 8.7 per cent from 1947. Not since 1928 have people spent less on alcohol one year than in the preceding year.

GOP Committee Members Disavow Textbook Probe

Washington, June 20—(AP)—Republican members of the House un-American activities committee today formally disavowed any part in the committee's proposed textbook investigation.

In a signed statement, they requested the committee to "drop all proceedings in this matter forthwith."

They suggested, too, that if congress wants to investigate textbooks "the correct procedure" would be to establish a commission of educators to make the investigation.

Such a commission, they said, might be composed of men like General Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, and Dr. Henry M. Wriston, president of Brown University.

"Certainly," they said, "it is a matter for experts in the field of education and for state and local authorities rather than federal authorities; the threat of federal control of education is already too apparent to need elaboration."

Flagpole Sitter Cheers Indian's Winning Streak

Cleveland, June 20—(AP)—Speaking through a freshly grown beard, flagpole sitter Charley Lupica expressed satisfaction today over the Indians' current winning streak.

Lupica has been aloft 40 days on his east side Cleveland perch 21 feet high. He vowed never he would stay there until the tribe reaches first place in the American League.

"I can feel the good earth under my feet already," intoned the well-tanned, 37-year-old Lupica on his six by six foot platform.

Royalty Approves Of Texan Husband For Princess

Nechingen, Germany, June 20—(AP)—The royal relatives of Princess Cecilia of Hohenzollern met her American husband-to-be tonight and beamed approval.

Clyde Harris, 31, Amarillo, Tex., interior decorator was introduced to his future in-laws at a pre-wedding reception in ancient Hohenzollern castle.

That's where the tall, good-looking American former Army officer will take as his bride tomorrow the grand-daughter of Kaiser Wilhelm. She is a direct descendant of Queen Victoria of England.

"We love Clyde," Prince Louis Ferdinand, brother of the bride and spokesman for the family, told reporters.

"He is such a sincere, likeable and genuine chap. I can tell you, we are happy about this match."

The bride's mother, crown Princess Cecilia, displayed a similar fondness toward the young American.

None of the family appeared at all concerned that the blonde Cecilia, a descendant of one of the oldest families in Europe, was not marrying a title.

The 31-year-old princess, courted by various royal swains, intends to become a typical American housewife.

Man Killed After Shooting Sheriff, Officer In Fray

Hartford City, Ind., June 20—(AP)—One man was killed and the Hartford City police chief and the Blackford county sheriff were wounded in a shooting at a home here to-night.

The dead man was identified as Rollis Cook, 37, Police Chief John Landis was wounded in the leg and Sheriff Gerald Uptegraf was shot in the abdomen in an exchange of gunfire.

The dead man's mother, Mrs. Iva Cook, had called police and said her son was brandishing a revolver and "threatening Betty and me."

The police chief said he and the sheriff went to the house to serve an affidavit on Cook. The affidavit, charging assault and battery, had been filed by the man's wife, Mrs. Betty Cook.

Cook barricaded himself in the house after the two officers were shot. State troopers, called from the Pendleton post, came to aid the stricken officers and shot out with Cook. The man was hit by a bullet fired into the house. His body was found in the house.

Actor Fractures Thigh In Game

Santa Monica, Calif., June 20—(AP)—Even an actor knows it's silly to slide into first base, particularly on a foul bunt. In fact, it's against the rules.

But there weren't any rules at a motion picture benefit ball game in Los Angeles yesterday, and Ronald Reagan—an ex-sports announcer—was doing his best to gag things up for the crowd. He slid into first.

They carried him off with what seemed to be a sprained ankle. Today his doctor announced it as a multiple fracture of the right thigh.

He put Reagan, 37, in a traction cast and said he will be hospitalized at least six weeks.

Truman May Detail Plans In Message

Washington, June 20—(AP)—President Truman is about to ask Congress for some $48,000,000 to start his "bold new program" for developing the world's backward areas, government officials disclosed today.

The president may spell out in detail his long-awaited project in a special message to Congress this week.

At the same time Mr. Truman is also expected to request broad authority to permit the government to "guarantee" private American capital against some risks of investing money in these areas.

The guarantee phrase is regarded as the most important part of the program since it is counted upon to attract millions of dollars in private capital into the backward areas and eventually to improve living standards.

For General Improvement
Government officials have been working on the overall program since the president announced it as "point 4" in his inauguration day message.

At that time, he called for a "bold new program" of general improvements in underdeveloped regions to combat human misery and further world prosperity—"for making the benefits of our scientific advances and industrial progress available" to assist free peoples of such areas in cooperation with other nations.

Reporter Beaten As He Probes Acts Of Hooded Mobs

Birmingham, Ala., June 20—(AP)—A reporter was beaten up today while on assignment to investigate activities of hooded and robed mobs.

The reporter, Clark Stallworth of the Birmingham Post, said he was roughed up by two men at a filling station-general store in the nearby mining community of Summit. He was not hurt seriously.

Several floggings had been reported in the area recently.

Stallworth told Walker county Judge P. E. Day at Jasper he was "decayed" into the store.

Judge Day issued two warrants. One named Roscoe Fowler, Sumner, and charged assault and battery.

The other, "John Doe" warrant, charged assault and battery and assault with a weapon. "John Doe" warrants are issued when the name of the person charged is not known.

Bond was fixed at $300 in each. Four deputies were sent to Sumner from Jasper.

Stallworth said he had gone to the store on a tip from a woman that a man there could give him some information on activities of night riders.

He declined to say what he asked Fowler, but quoted Fowler as answering: "Call me a Klan (SIC), will you, you SOB."

Stallworth said Fowler then struck him. He said he wrestled free and ran from the store.

Boy, 6, Drowns In Swimming Pool

Urbana, Ill., June 20—(AP)—John T. Wenger, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wenger, of 1117 West Union St., Champaign, Ill., drowned accidentally tonight in Crystal Lake Park swimming pool, Urbana.

County Coroner Don Wikoff said the boy was playing in the pool with several other children when he suddenly disappeared. When the others discovered his body life guards and an Urbana fire department rescue squad attempted for an hour to retrieve him.

Vet Saves Baby In 5-Story Fall

Detroit, June 20—(AP)—Two-year-old Michael Patrician, Jr., was holding grimly to the outside ledge of a hotel window today. It was a five-story drop to the sidewalk below.

Blake Frey, 24, a husky marine veteran, happened by and spotted the baby. He went into action fast. He ordered someone to run for a blanket. But it was too late. The baby started to fall.

Frey leaped to the spot and held out his arms. The 40-pound child slipped through his arms to the sidewalk. But the fall had been broken.

The baby, although injured seriously, was reported responding to treatment at a hospital.

"I'm sorry I couldn't hold him," Frey apologized to the baby's parents.

President Orders Reforms In Government Agencies

Catholic Church Acts Against Czech Rulers Proposes Secretary Of Welfare

Vatican City, June 20—(AP)—The Roman Catholic church struck back at its enemies in Czechoslovakia today and excommunicated all Catholics who join the communist-sponsored Catholic Action, rival to the church's lay organization of the same name.

It was a blow in support of the 60-year-old archbishop of Prague, Msgr. Josef Beran, whose sermon wave of arrests against priests and prominent laymen in Moravia. They reported without confirmation that Archbishop Josef Malocha of Olomouc in Moravia was one of those placed under police surveillance.

Rumors that Archbishop Beran himself had been placed under formal arrest lacked confirmation because the decree declared the new Catholic Action group "schismatic" and accused its founders of fraud.

Even as the church acted with one of the most powerful weapons at its disposal, Czech police tightened their guard over the palace of the archbishop. He has declared a fight to the end against efforts to make the church a communist puppet.

Czech churchmen in Prague said the government had launched a wave of arrests against priests and prominent laymen in Moravia. They reported without confirmation that Archbishop Josef Malocha of Olomouc in Moravia was one of those placed under police surveillance.

Rumors that Archbishop Beran himself had been placed under formal arrest lacked confirmation because the decree declared the new Catholic Action group "schismatic" and accused its founders of fraud.

Babich Convicted Of Pat's Murder

Milwaukee, June 20—(AP)—Milton Babich was convicted of first degree murder tonight just three months after the weighted body of his wife's pretty sister was pulled from the Milwaukee river.

He was sentenced to the Wisconsin state prison at Waupun "at hard labor for the rest of your natural life." Sheriff Herman Kubiak said the youth would be taken to prison tonight.

Before sentence was passed, Babich stood before the bench and declared, "I am not guilty of murder in the first degree."

It took the municipal court jury just one hour and 15 minutes to decide that the 19-year-old defendant deliberately shot Patricia Birmingham, 16, to death last Feb. 10.

That was some five weeks before he eloped to Michigan with his victim's pregnant sister, Kathleen, now 18.

Babich's bride, who is expecting her baby in July, broke into screams sobbing when the verdict was announced. She was comforted by Babich's older brother, Victor.

Both of them sat glaring at Detective Lawrence Papke, who was one of the detectives instrumental in obtaining Babich's original statement about the shooting.

The defendant, himself, did not change expression, but glanced quickly back over his shoulder at his sobbing wife.

Kathleen spurned attentions of her mother, Mrs. Albert T. Birmingham, who testified for the prosecution. Mrs. Birmingham resumed her seat some distance from her daughter and also began to sob.

A scattering of applause was heard in the courtroom at the verdict and it was some moments before order was restored.

Budget Shortage May Halt Payrolls

Chicago, June 20—(AP)—A treasury department disbursing officer said today that 8,900 employees of four government departments in five states face possible payless paydays, unless congress passes a deficiency appropriations bill.

William Weldon, regional disbursing officer, said a wage increase of approximately $330 a year each granted to federal employees last year for which no budget provision was made had practically exhausted the payroll allotments of many departments before the end of the fiscal year, June 30.

Weldon said the employees, some of whom may not receive their scheduled pay before next Friday, are located in Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, Iowa and Wisconsin. However, Weldon added, there now are at least two deficiency appropriation bills pending in congress.

Mundt Addresses Kiwanis Delegates

Atlantic City, N.J., June 20—(AP)—U. S. Senator Karl Mundt (R-S.D.) today told 10,000 fellow Kiwanians they must fight communism now or surrender to it.

In an address at the opening of the 34th annual convention of Kiwanis International, Mundt suggested formation of "American enterprise committees" by local Kiwanis clubs to combat communism.

Mundt told the convention communism in the United States has become so strong "the time has come when he must surmount its challenge of surrender to it."

DISMISS APPEAL

Washington, June 20—(AP)—The supreme court today dismissed an appeal filed by an Illinois life term prisoner sentenced 17 years ago for bank holdups.

The prisoner, Donald Loftus, told the supreme court he was not properly represented by defense counsel at trials in McHenry county, Ill. He asked the high tribunal to order new trials for him.

Third Communist Jailed By Judge In Conspiracy Case

New York, June 20—(AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina sent communist Gilbert Green to jail today to join three other imprisoned defendants in the communist conspiracy trial.

"I shall maintain order in this court if it's the last thing I do," Judge Medina said as he revoked the $5,000 bail of Green, Illinois state communist chairman.

Medina, irked by the dragging process of the 93-day-old trial, had exchanged remarks with Green, a witness in his own defense since June 16, and finally green said: "I thought you were going to give us a chance to prove our case."

Judge Medina replied quickly: "Mr. Green, you are hereby remanded for the balance of the trial."

When Eugene Dennis, another of the 11 top communist leaders on trial, began to protest, Judge Medina eyed him sternly and remarked: "The next outburst will be followed by the same sort of ruling."

On June 3, Medina also remanded defendants Gus Hall and Henry Winston after they protested a 30-day contempt of court sentence against defendant John Gates, editor of the communist newspaper, The Daily Worker.

Swindler Accused Of Grand Larceny As Hunst Continues

Chicago, June 20—(AP)—A man of many phony names was charged with operating a confidence game today while police hunted him and a widow-victim.

From a choice of 18 aliases, Sigmond Engel, 73, was selected for the warrant issued by the Municipal Court. Engel was accused of obtaining $5,000 through a false promise to marry.

The missing widow is Mrs. Reseda Corrigan, who disappeared from her home June 12 when she set out to retrieve $5,000 she had given her prospective husband.

Her 19-year-old daughter, also named Reseda, singled out a rogues' gallery picture of Engel as that of the man she said had been keeping company with her mother and saying he was Sam Engel, Hollywood movie producer.

The real Engel is married, has been in England for some time and bears no resemblance to the impostor.

In New York, the Journal-American said a woman reported Engel was the man who swindled her of $50,000 after marrying her.

The woman, Mrs. Pauline D. Langton, told police he vanished with her jewelry five days ago. She said he posed as "Carl Laemmle, Jr.," son of the founder of universal pictures. Laemmle has not been east for some time.

New York police charged Engel with grand larceny.

Trio Takes $2000 From Vets Club

Joliet, Ill., June 20—(AP)—Three masked gunmen held up a Marine corps veterans club today and escaped with currency and loot worth about $2,000.

The men entered through a first floor window and forced Mrs. Mary Smith, 48, the caretaker's wife, to die on a bed while they bound her hands and feet.

Then they ordered Fred Smith, 52, the caretaker, to accompany them to the basement where they forced him to help carry a 750-pound safe to their car. The safe contained $504.

The gunmen also took three slot machines, valued at $1,000, and a $400 movie sound projector.

16 Million Veterans To Receive Refund On GI Insurance

Washington, June 20—(AP)—Cash refunds totaling $2,800,000,000 will begin about next January to some 16,000,000 World War II veterans who took out GI life insurance policies, it was announced today.

Government officials predicted the money will serve as a healthy "shot in the arm" for business in 1950.

These officials noted that the $2,800,000,000 payoff on terminal leave bonds in 1947 provided a sizeable stimulus as reflected on sales charts. Most veterans promptly cashed their bonds.

Average $175
Under the new payments, announced by Veterans Administrator Carl R. Gray, Jr., each ex-serviceman or his heirs would receive an average of about $175. Gray said, however, the calculations on the vast operation have not been completed.

The VA chief indicated the checks will start going out "sometime in January, 1950," but on Capitol Hill, Rep. Keating (R-NY) demanded that Congress set Oct. 15 as the deadline.

Described as a "dividend" the money to be repaid is from two sources:

1. An $8,000,000,000 surplus which developed from the fact that GI insurance premiums were based by law upon a standard mortality (death-rate) table which turned out to be higher than needed.

2. Earnings from the surplus. In general, the administration said every veteran who took out national service insurance and kept it in force at least three months will be eligible—provided the policies were not issued after Jan. 1, 1948.

A CENTURY OF SERVICE TO THE DEAF
“A Century of Service to the Deaf Child” is the theme of the thirty-fourth meeting of the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf, in session in Jacksonville this week. Eight hundred men and women who have contributed nobly to the latter part of a century of service are registered at the meeting of the Illinois School for the Deaf. It is highly appropriate that Jacksonville was selected for the centennial year meeting, because this city traditionally has been one of the great centers of the world in the education of the handicapped. With an enrollment of about 600 children, the Illinois School for the Deaf is one of the largest institutions of its kind in the world. Important strides in education of the handicapped have been made in its classrooms. Its graduates have gone out into the world as living examples of what skill, perseverance and science can do for those who speak not and hear not in the normal sense.

Teachers of the deaf are patient people. They possess an over-abundance of human understanding. They are sincere, eager in their work to train children who come into the world with physical handicaps, or experience illness or accident which affects their speech or hearing. For one hundred years teachers in this highly specialized field have been making progress. Science came to their aid, and today the audio-visual methods of education are performing new feats in education of the hard-of-hearing. The crude methods of the “sign language” era have disappeared.

The story of Helen Keller is familiar to all. Her teacher was patient, willing to spend many hours for a small bit of progress. Today in schools devoted to the education of the handicapped are many men and women possessed of specialized training and tact, who perform wonderful things in education. While not highly publicized, as in the Helen Keller story, their service is rendered in volume to thousands of children, who without special training would be doomed to lives of social isolation. The modern school for the deaf equips children to take their place in society, to disregard their natural handicap and overcome it. Each graduating class of the Illinois School for Deaf is proof that these goals can be accomplished.

The Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf, founded in 1850 and incorporated by act of Congress in 1897, is an organization of educators of the deaf in the United States and Canada, with the general object of “promotion of the education of the deaf on the broadest, most advanced and practical lines,” and for that purpose “to secure the harmonious union in one organization, of all persons actually engaged in educating the deaf in America.”

Teachers and executives from 40 states of this country, several provinces of Canada, and the British Isles, are in attendance at the meeting. The thirty-fourth meeting of the Convention of American Instructors of the Deaf is one of the most outstanding assemblies ever held in Jacksonville.

William Cooper, Former Resident, Dies At Rodeo

Mr. Cooper is survived by his wife, who before marriage was Annie Birdsell, and four children. Funeral services and burial will take place at Collinsville.

An Associated Press dispatch received here Monday stated that Mr. Cooper, who was 56 years old, died from a heart attack caused by over exertion in a rodeo event, according to the verdict of a Bond county coroner's jury.

Cooper participated in a “riders’ pickup” horseback riding event a few minutes before he collapsed and died at the DeMoulinso park near Greenville, Ill.

Besides his wife, survivors include two sons, Dick and Don; two daughters, Mrs. Phyllis Fry of California and Betty who is at home; two grandsons and one sister, Mrs. May Dowling of Danville.

Never Rains But It Pours
Memphis, Tenn.—(P)—For Charles Wilson, the day just went from bad to worse.

It was raining something awful when he drove down to the dairy at 4 a. m. to start his milk route. The rain kept Sunday fishermen home, and orders for extra milk forced him to make two runs instead of one.

When he got back to the plant, soaking wet, he found a fender of his car smashed. He called home to tell his wife, and she said lightning had knocked the chimney down.

Trying hard to be philosophical, Wilson took the family for a ride. Somewhere along the way the baby threw Mrs. Wilson's purse out the window.

A Foxhole Against The Atomic Bomb

By Hal Boyle

Luxembourg—(Via Airmail)—(P)—The best foxhole in Europe was the event of an atomic war is the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

This tiny postcard country has been prepared for 200 years against the dropping of the atom bomb. Deep beneath the breath-taking hills of its capital, one of the world's most picturesque cities, lie 17 miles of defensive tunnels.

“They were dug in the early 1700's and they could easily hold everyone in the country,” said David Ned Blackmer, 33, of Binghamton, N. Y. The little monarchy, ruled by Grand Duchess Charlotte, is only 999 miles square and has a population of about 300,000.

Blackmer, an ex-G. I., decided after the war, like many another American soldier—he wanted to learn more about the lands he had fought across. So when he had recuperated from a severe head wound he came here to study the culture of Luxembourg to win his doctorate degree.

“The people have been extraordinarily friendly and cooperative,” he said.

Luxembourgers have had a weary time trying to live up to their national motto: “We want to remain what we are.”

Natural Stronghold
The country is a natural stronghold, a crossroads for invasion armies moving across Europe, and its name means “little fortress.” It has been a military outpost since Roman times.

More than most small countries Luxembourg knows the cost of being a football to the big powers. It agreed in 1867 to demolish its fortifications in return for a guarantee of “eternal neutrality.” Since then German troops have wheeled across it in three wars.

German commanders took what they wanted, even forced Luxembourgers to serve in their armies. But this tiny door mat of Europe is beginning to bristle. It has found “neutrality” doesn't pay.

“They are a little imperialistic now,” laughed Blackmer. “They want a slice of Germany. That is they want the land—but not the Germans who live on it.”

And Luxembourg has raised its pre-war army of 300 men to 10,000. This is really a token gesture, however, to give a legalistic basis to its claim that its soldiers should be treated as war prisoners rather than impressed into foreign conquering armies.

How long Luxembourgers could hold out in the event of another invasion is problematical—unless they were quickly reinforced.

“But they are wiring the old tunnels again,” said Blackmer. During the last war Luxembourg served as the headquarters of Gen. George S. Patton's Third army and the U. S. Ninth airforce. It was saved from destruction during the Battle of the Bulge in 1944, and the people are now strongly pro-American.

“There is no university here and Luxembourgers used to send their sons to Germany for higher education,” said Blackmer. “Now it is the dream of every boy to study in America.”

“They love American cars, and there are probably more American-made cars per capita here than there are in the United States.”

On the other hand, there are also more Luxembourgers in Chicago than there are in the capital city here, and more Luxembourgers in America than now live in Luxembourg country itself.

CROCODILE VICTIM GETS FALSE ARMS

Lim Kim Foo, who lost his arms when attacked by a crocodile a year ago, will soon leave the general hospital fitted with the artificial arms. They were invented by A. T. Mellowship, superintendent of the Artificial Limb and Orthopaedic Appliance Centre. They were hand-made by a team of six highly skilled workmen, five Chinese and an Indian.

Wheeling Plans A New Spin

Wheeling, W. Va.—(P)—Pride in its ancient suspension bridge is tinged with regret and hope in Wheeling these days. The old bridge is nearing the end of its useful life and Wheeling wants a new one. The prospects are reported to be fairly bright that the state will provide the necessary funds for a replacement.

But even now, a century later, Wheeling takes occasional time out for a quiet chuckle over the way Pittsburgh and Wheeling were contending vigorously for the Ohio River packet trade with the “west.”

When a suspension bridge was proposed between the West Virginia mainland and Wheeling Island, Pittsburghers promptly protested. They contended it would interfere with the high stacks of the packet boats. They went to the Supreme Court of the United States and obtained an injunction.

Wheelers, however, took their case directly to Congress. Congress specified that the height of steam-boat chimneys be governed to clear the bridge.

LOVE-IN-BLOOM—Jeanne McAffrey is delightfully cool, and makes the same kind of picture, swinging and swaying on the boom of a sail boat on Tampa Bay, off St. Petersburg, Fla.

In 1834, a high wind blew the bridge down and Pittsburgh rejoiced.

The packet Pennsylvania, passing the stark abutments, lowered its chimney in derision.

When a replacement bridge was proposed, the case again was taken to the highest court. This time Wheeling won. The result was the bridge now standing—a structure with a 1,010 foot-span.

When a new bridge is built, no protest is expected from Pittsburgh. The packet trade has long since passed.

A summertime filling for tea sandwiches is one made of finely chopped or grated cucumber mixed with cream directly to Congress. Congress specified that the height of steam-boat chimneys be governed to clear the bridge.

GLAD HAND PRODUCES RED FACE

Altus, Okla.—(P)—The Greeting Committee of the Altus Chamber of Commerce was pained at the local cafe.

In walked Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cupps, of Stillwater, Okla. The greeters descended with handshakes and salutations.

The Cupps were overwhelmed, and thanked the chamber for the greeting for tourists. “Tourists,” they chorused, “we thought you were new residents.”

Through red faces and sheepish grins, the greeters treated the Cupps to the coffee they had stopped for.

First postoffice in what is now the United States was organized under a royal patent granted to Thomas Neale, in 1691.

Greenfield Parish
Pushes Drive For Public Playground

Rev. Father Boll, pastor of the Greenfield St. Michael church and mission, has announced the opening of a public community playground in the Greene county town.

The pastor, in making the announcement, expressed the need for funds to equip the playground. A committee has been organized to collect pennies, and only pennies, from individuals and business concerns in Greenfield to aid this worthwhile project.

In stressing that "this is strictly a civic project", Father Boll elaborated: "American boys and girls of all faiths get along marvelously well on war fields and battlefields. There is no reason for them not to get along on Greenfields, home fields and peace fields. Getting along on peace fields means no need for war fields and battle fields."

The committee has set a goal of 30,000 pennies in its drive to improve playing facilities for Greenfield's youngsters.

New York Stock Market

Gains for favored issues ran to around 2 points. The balance of the market showed rising tendencies but advances were mostly fractional.

Interest in the rails and air stocks became a trifle more aggressive late in the day and was accompanied by a meager pickup in trading activity. Despite larger demand, however, turnover was at the rate of only 100,000 shares or so for the full day. Corporate bonds moved narrowly.

GRAIN PRICES EDGE AHEAD; WHEAT JUMPS OVER TWO CENTS

Chicago, June 20.—(P)—Grains edged ahead throughout the session on the Board of Trade today. It wasn't a spectacular advance, but it left cereals with worthwhile gains at the close.

With July leading, wheat jumped more than 2 cents at times. Mill buying helped. So did more reports of disappointing yields in the south-west. Local traders generally took to the buying side. Hedging pressure was negligible.

Receipts were: wheat 43 cars, corn 202, oats 94, rye none, barley 35, sorghum 29.
Wheat closed 21-22 higher, July $1.31-1.32, corn was 1-1 1/2 higher, July 60 1/2-1, rye was 1 1/2 higher, July $1.37-1, sorghum was 2 to 3 1/2 higher, July $2.32, and lard was 7 to 10 cents a hundred pounds higher, July $11.37.

System's working pretty well, too. In his first week he caught 51 stray pooches and didn't collect a single punch on the nose.

Odds Favor Youth In Charles, Walcott Bout

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—The age-old story of youth vs. experience sums up Wednesday night's Comiskey park scrap between Eddie Charles of Cincinnati and Joe Walcott of Camden, N. J., for the N.B.A. version of the world heavyweight championship.

Can 27-year-old Charles, giving away some 15 pounds, catch the wily will of the wisp who made Joe Louis miss for 25 rounds?

After a year's layoff, will the legs of 35-year-old Jersey Joe be able to stand another long pursuit race?

Will Walcott maneuver Charles into openings for the sneak rights that floored Louis three times?

If he is dropped early, will youth help Charles get off the floor to win in the late rounds?

These are just a few of the questions puzzling the oddsmakers who make Charles an early 5 to 7 favorite. There are indications it might

Ninth-Inning Run Gives Boston 3-2 Win Over Chicago

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—Eddie Stanky doubled and Elbie Fletcher drove him home with a single in the ninth inning to give the Boston Braves a 3-2 victory over the Chicago Cubs today.

Hank Sauer had tied the score for the Cubs in the eighth when he followed Herm Reich's single with his fifth homer of the season.

A crowd of 8,531 saw the Cubs make a gallant bid to tie it again in the ninth. They were foiled by umpire Art Gore. Frankie Gustine opened with a single, took second on a passed ball, moved to third on Gene Mauch's fly and then slid across the plate after Hank Edwards' fly to Marvin Rickert.

However, Catcher Bill Salkeld relayed the ball to Bob Elliott at third base and Gore called Gustine out for leaving the bag too soon. It was therefore became a game-ending double play.

Manager Frankie Frisch of the Cubs threw his cap on the ground and charged Gore with a torrent of words. But it availed him nothing.

Vern Bickford was the winner in the slab duel with Bob Rush. It was his ninth victory.

Jackie Robinson Paces National League Batting

New York, June 20.—(AP)—Jackie Robinson, Brooklyn leaguer, continues to pace the National League in batting in addition to leading the circuit in runs batted in, hits and stolen bases.

Robinson, including games of Sunday, is moving along at a 358 gait, an increase of nine points over his mark a week ago. Trailing Robinson in the batting derby is Red Schoendienst of the St. Louis Cardinals, who is hitting .347.

Robbie has collected 83 hits in 232 trips to the plate. He has driven in 55 runs and stolen 13 bases. He is tied with Sid Gordon of New York for second place in most runs scored at 44, five behind teammate Pee Wee Reese's leading 49. Robinson is also deadlocked with teammate Carl Furillo and Chicago's Roy Smalley for the lead in triples at five each.

Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner failed to hit a home run during the week but continues to set the pace in that department with 14, one more than hit by the Cards' Stan Musial. Ed Ennis of the Phils tops the field in two-baggers with 19.

Rocky Graziano To Try To Regain Middleweight Title

Wilmington, Del., June 20.—(AP)—Rocky Graziano, back in the good graces of the New York and National Boxing association fistic fathers, sets out on the comeback trail tomorrow night with regaining of the middleweight crown his No. 1 objective.

The hard-hitting youth from New York's east side takes on Bobby Claus of Buffalo, N.Y., in a 10-round at Wilmington's ball park.

If the year's absence from the ring hasn't robbed Rocky's fists of any of their dynamite he should make short work of the Buffalo fighter and head toward a title shot against newly crowned Jake La Motta.

Graziano's career was virtually all trouble from the time he won the world championship of the 160-pound division in an epic slugging battle with Tony Zale in Chicago July 18, 1947, until he lost it back to Zale in Newark, N.J., June 10, 1948.

The New York State athletic commission suspended him Feb. 7, 1948 for failure to report two $100,000 bribe offers he thought were "jokes."

The NBA slapped a suspension on him Nov. 26, 1948 for running out on a fight with Fred Apostoli in Oakland, Calif.

The New York commission lifted its suspension last May 6 and the NBA reinstated him on May 29.

Wholesale markets of New York state transact about one-fourth of the wholesale business of the United States.

A prime example of how a baseball fan can pick up a piece of info and kick it around 'till he builds the proverbial mountain out of a molehill, was displayed during Sunday's Moose-Beardtown Ivy League baseball fray. Lefty Connors—starting Beardstown twirler—was the topic of discussion. Fans, in talking to sports ed., had Lefty playing ball with the Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds and a number of minor league clubs, in yesteryears. They made such a topic of conversation out of the fact that it aroused our curiosity to the extent that we invested in a couple of phone calls to the river-town. Here's what we learned from Virgil Rider, former sports editor of the Beardstown Illinois Star.

Two Redbirds were shaken from their perches in the all-star poll over the weekend. Marlin slipped behind Brooklyn's Pee Wee Reese in the short-stop balloting and Eddie Kazak raved on his hot-corner lead to the Giants' Sid Gordon.

Jacksonville baseball enthusiasts may have a local interest in prob ball in the near future. Methinks that maybe Jack Rossiter—Springfield scout—has something in mind for Stan Scotts and Charley Due. The two youths showed up well at the Streater tryouts and we hear tell that the Washington Senators are interested.

Sunday night's softball bouts at Nichols park were too late for Monday's sports page. Here are the results—preliminary, Granite City girls 2, Jay-Cee girls 1; feature—Macomb Bruins 6, Jacksonville Implement Dealers 5.

The Dealer-Bruin tilt was a red-hot affair. Horn—Macomb pitcher—held the locals hitless for 6 innings, but they broke loose to score enough runs to tie the count at 5-5 all in the last two innings. The two nines battled on for 9 innings before Macomb pushed the tie-breaking single tally across the platter.

Boudreau And Keltner Trail In Star Poll

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—Manager-shortstop Lou Boudreau and third baseman Ken Keltner of the Cleveland Indians, top favorites in the 1948 poll, are just running in the pack in the balloting for the 1949 all-star baseball game.

Magner was the winning pitcher and Bote suffered the loss.

The Squires clipped the Stoner's cafe bunch by a lopsided 25-6 tally in the American league final contest. Blasse twirled for the winners. Todd and Long shared the mound duties for Stoners.

Myers Bros. Nine Ekes 2-1 Win From K.C.'s

The highly-touted first place Myers Bros. aggregation came within a lone marker of seeing a complete reverse in the local softball "A" league standings as the cellar-dwelling K. of C. nine fought and lost a bitter 2-1 decision at the Southside diamond last night.

Each club collected five hits. Allen and Wolfe garnered a pair of bingles. Morris, cf, was the main wheel in the K. C. offense.

The winners pushed their pair of runs across the platter in the last of the third. They added up the long end of the score on two hits and two K.C. miscues.

Tommy Massatto—K.C. shortstop—tallied for the losers in the fifth chapter when he walked, stole second and then raced home.

When Lefty Allen—Myers first baseman—caught a foul ball out of position to make the throw home.

George Kell Gains In Batting Race; 30 Points Ahead

Chicago, June 20.—(AP)—Detroit's George Kell continued his forward surge in the American league batting race today with a .352 percentage, 30 full points ahead of the field.

The Bengal third-sacker fattened his average six points during the week, but actually picked up nine points when Philadelphia's Eddie Joost, last week's runner-up, dropped 12 points to .313.

In second place through Sunday's games was Dom DiMaggio of Boston, who climbed four points to .322. Another Boston outfielder, Ted Williams, moved from fifth to third place despite a two-point drop to .314.

Other leaders, according to official figures, were Philadelphia's Hank Majeski, tied with Joost at .313; Bob Dillinger, St. Louis, .307; Cass Michaels, Chicago, .305; Hoot Evers, Detroit, .301; Vic Wertz, Detroit, .296; and Johnny Groth, Detroit, and Eddie Robinson, Washington, .294 each.

In the specialized department, a three-way tie developed in the home-division between Joost, Williams and Vern Stephens of Boston with 16 each. Williams held the run-batted-in lead with 65, running across 13 during the week.

Joost was ahead in runs, 61; Kell, in hits, 80; Majeski, in two-baggers, 18, finally replacing injured Gus Zernial of Chicago as leader in that department; Dillinger in stolen bases, eight; and Cleveland's Dale Mitchell, and Philadelphia's Elmer Veltz shared the lead in triples with seven.

Two more victories during the week tightened the hold on the league pitching leadership for New York's Vic Raschi, who now has an 11

CLIPPED ANGEL
By Clive Grierson Cornish
Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

I WAS sitting at the bar in the Golden Room, thinking the thoughts that come to a man after his third rye highball, when somebody thumped me on the back. In the mirror I could see it was Doug Weyman; I restrained that first murderous impulse.

"For Pete's sake," Doug shouted, "why didn't you tell me you were back? Here I ring up your office to find out how many more months you'll be away, and they tell me you got in yesterday. I've been chasing you all over. How are you, Mike?"

"Pretty good, Doug. It's been a long time..."

"Darned right it has—three years. Why didn't you look us up when you got out of the Army? What's Bolivia got that we haven't got?"

"Well, it seems there was a tin mine..."

"By gosh, Carol will be tickled to see you..."

DOUG is like that and you have to bear with him. He's a partner in a topnotch firm of lawyers, and it's my guess he's their vice president in charge of browbeating tough witnesses.

"Listen, old man," Doug went on, "I've got a client with a special job for you."

"No, you haven't," I said. "I've just spent three months at 12,000 feet and I'm going to sit around at sea level until my lungs have shrunk back to normal. Honest, Doug, I'm a wreck."

Doug laughed. "Worn out at 37, eh?"

"I'm not kidding. And, furthermore, from now on I'm through climbing mountains. I'm going to hire assistants—young ones—and let them..."

"This client of mine—" Doug began.

"If you'll excuse my candor," I said, "to heck with your client." I finished my highball and signaled for another. "How are Carol and the kids?"

"Fine, fine," Doug said, gracefully dropping the client. "You know, it's time you got married, Mike. You're missing the best part of life."

"You and Carol have tried hard enough to get me hitched," I said. "Ye gods, when I think of the charmers you used to parade before me... Every time I had dinner at your place I felt like the chief buyer for the Sultan of Pottawatomie. Not that they weren't nice kids—some of 'em."

"You're too darned particular," Doug grumbled.

"I'm not asking much," I objected. "Beauty, unselfishness, a decent education, intelligence, a mature mind—in other words..."

"In other words, the impossible," Doug grinned. "Tell me, Sultan, how will you recognize this glorious creature when you see her?"

He kept glancing over his shoulder as he talked. The argument seemed pointless so I cut it short. "At my age you get so you can read character at a glance."

"Okay, Sultan, I'll just call you on that. Lamp the gal that's just coming in—the one that looks like Rosalind Russell."

I TURNED around, and I couldn't help staring. "You mean the one that Rosalind Russell faintly resembles?" I said.

The girl was a stunner. Black hair piled over an ivory brow and good clothes worn the way a model would like to wear them. But the arrogant sweep of her walk and the way she held her head was a dead giveaway.

"Cafe Society," I said. "Beautiful, sure—but spoiled as the dickens. In fact, I'd say she's a perfect specimen of the 'too many' girl."

"Huh?"

"Too many people have told her she is beautiful, too many times."

"Mike," Doug said disgustedly, "you're the most skeptical guy I've ever known."

Maybe he was right. In my business you've got to be a skeptic. It's a sort of armor. You keep company with promoters and prospectors and excited investors, all of them with a share in some mineral claim, and all dead sure they're going to get rich quick.

You're a skeptic because you know that in ninety-nine times out of a hundred their dreams will end up with a few pieces of rusting machinery and a hole in the ground. If you forget it, you don't last long as a mining engineer.

I thought about that and I wondered if my professional instincts

1,000 Instructors Of Deaf Arrive For Convention

Council Defers Action On Request To Rezone W. Independence Site

A delegation of property owners residing in the vicinity of West Independence avenue and Fayette street made a return visit to the city council last night to continue their opposition to a petition for rezoning property on West Independence, where members of the Watson family propose to erect a building for use of Sears Coldspot repair shop.

The ordinance committee brought a recommendation that the petition be granted and the property rezoned. Several citizens argued against the committee's recommendation. The controversy took an unexpected course when Attorney L. C. Arnold, representing the petitioners, asked the council to defer action, which was done by unanimous vote.

The report of the ordinance committee, composed of Aldermen Haneline, Woods and Kelly, was presented by the chairman. It recalled that a public hearing was held on June 10, when no objections were filed. The committee was unanimous in recommending that a lot east of the Elm City bus garage be changed from Class A residential to light business use, providing a site for a brick building which would contain 14,200 square feet of floor space.

The petition for an amendment to the zoning ordinance was filed by Glenn E. Watson, Floyd E. Watson and Cecil Watson, who propose to erect the building for Coldspot.

Property Owners Oppose Change. Citizens began to speak in opposition to changing the zoning law as soon as the report was made by the committee. They pointed out that the neighborhood is a residential section, and they believe the presence of an industry would be detrimental to their property and affect the desirability of the area for residential purposes. John Fellhauer, Don Colclasure and Ray Schrempf were among those who spoke. Thirty-eight citizens signed a petition more than a week ago opposing a change on the zoning law.

After a long period of discussion the subject was brought to a close at least temporarily, when Attorney Arnold asked that action be deferred. On motion of Alderman Baker, seconded by Alderman Woods, the council voted to drop the subject for the present.

Jay-Cees Favor Scout Lease. A communication from the Junior Chamber of Commerce, signed by its secretary, Gerald V. Flynn, was read by Clerk Phillip. It announced that the Jay-Cees voted in favor of the city leasing a tract of lake land to the Boy Scouts as the lease has been presented.

Several weeks ago a Boy Scout camp site lease failed passage because several councilmen objected to a clause which granted swimming rights.

The only bid for purchase of $27,000 worth of park improvement bonds, approved at a special election in May, was submitted by the Elliott State Bank and Farmers State Bank & Trust Co. The bid was opened and read by City Attorney Pay.

Joint Bid Accepted. In their joint bid the banks agreed to pay par value and accrued interest to date of delivery, and a premium of $45. The bonds will bear interest at the rate of 1 1/2 per cent, and the bonds will be furnished free to the city under terms of the bid.

On motion of Alderman Chumley, seconded by Alderman Reid, the bid was accepted. A resolution to sell the bonds to the local banks was then adopted on motion of the same two aldermen.

A motion to make final payment to Jack Beaver, who has finished wrecking the old smoke stack west of the city hall, was made by Alderman Haneline, and carried after a second by Alderman Flynn.

The spreading of 11,000 gallons of street oil yesterday was announced by Alderman Kelly, who also discussed the probable removal of several old and decayed trees from boulevards.

Kelly said the highway committee is working on plans for the improvement of several alleys, through which heavy traffic is expected when the loop paving project between Mary Jane Morris and Mr. and Mrs. Tressie Martin of Exeter.

Deanery To Hold Recollection Day Sunday, June 26

The Jacksonville Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women has planned a Day of Recollection for all women of the Deanery and their friends at the Church of Our Saviour in Jacksonville on Sunday, June 26.

The Reverend James Suddes will conduct the exercises for the day. Father Suddes is a graduate of Routh high school, and is director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Registration will begin at 10 a.m. in Formaz Hall in Our Saviour's grade school. The first conference is scheduled at 10:30 o'clock. Luncheon will be served in Formaz Hall at 12 o'clock. The day's program will be concluded with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:30 o'clock.

Elsberry, Mo., Nursery Visited By Farm Groups

Eighty soil conservation district directors, technicians and interested farmers from nine west central Illinois counties spent Monday inspecting the Elsberry, Mo., USCS nursery and the conservation work being done there.

Thousands of seedling trees are raised annually on the 290 acre hillside and bottom land farm located on the west side of the Mississippi river south of Louisiana, Mo. The nursery also makes intensive tests of the best legumes and grasses for this part of the country and the most effective cultural methods.

Representatives were present Monday from Morgan, Cass, Scott, Menard, Greene, Adams, Brown, Pike and Calhoun counties. Those from Morgan county included, Farm Adviser E. H. Garlick, Ted Pierce, Larry Hall, Lester Martin of Alexander, Clyde Mieh of Waverly and District Conservationist John T. Whelan.

Joe Pierre of Champaign, grass and legume specialist, and Jack Kapitka, woody plants specialist, directed the tour.

The visitors saw plantings of multi-flora rose, a plant which may take the place of the Osage orange hedges on the farms of this area. Earlier plantings, now 11 years old, were set four feet apart. Others about six years old, and planted only a foot apart, form a dense, beautiful living fence. Those planted on the contour were especially interesting.

Four year old alfalfa plots that have been kept in prime condition by the addition of fertilizers. A field of bluestem, the original grass of the great prairies, attracted considerable interest. Straight plantings and mixtures of pellet clover, birdsfoot trefoil, alfalfa, fescue, hubam and crimson clover and broome grass were examined carefully.

Also seen were soybeans and grasses planted in the same rows. Harvesting of alfalfa fescue and broome grass are now in progress.

The visitors inspected the plantings of the various pines and cedars used in soil conservation work. The nursery is raising many tulip poplars, considered by many as the logical successor to elms killed by disease.

The tour took the place of the regular quarterly meeting of the west central Illinois association of soil conservation district boards scheduled to have been held in Winchester.

AT THE THIRD ASHLAND LEGION HORSE SHOW

Winning blue ribbons in the open five gaited class at the Ashland horse show is almost a habit with Spring Feber and Dorothy Ann Loring of Rushville. They won the same class last year.

Miss Loring and Dark Rhythm took top honors in the three gaited show Sunday.

Betty Ann Yancey presented the trophy; Ringmaster Raymond Rones, also of Ashland, handed over the blue ribbon.

Tough luck hit Velma Snyder, MacMurray College riding instructor, when Clayla Dare lost a front shoe at the beginning of the open five gaited class. Her brother, kneeling, rapidly enlisted the aid of Bob Leggett, veteran Jacksonville blacksmith, who remounted the shoe within seven minutes allowed in such cases by show rules.

Miss Snyder and Clayla Dare got back into the competition to win second place in a large, excellent field.

Chances Higher For Raising State Gasoline Tax

Springfield, June 20—(AP)—The Illinois Senate tonight adopted an amendment which supporters said improves the prospects of passing the nickel gasoline tax bill.

The bill, to raise the state gas tax from three to five cents a gallon, may be called for Senate passage Tuesday. It has not been acted on by the House.

Under the amendment, approved by a 26-19 vote, Chicago and Cook county would get a greater split of the higher tax revenue than the bill originally proposed.

The metropolitan area's share would be boosted at the expense of that provided for the state highway system, downstate counties and township roads.

Green Bay Bank Robbers Sentenced

Milwaukee, June 20—(AP)—Two Green Bay men who admitted robbing the Denmark, Wis., State Bank March 4 were sentenced to federal prison terms today.

Robert E. Cleary, 33, was sentenced to eight years and Donald Miller, 30, drew a four year term.

The men were arrested in Green Bay about a month after the $38,318 robbery, which succeeded only because of an elaborate protection system failed.

More than $31,000 was recovered.

Condensed cream of mushroom soup makes a quick sauce for dried beef. A half can of the soup will be enough to sauce about a quarter pound of the beef. Serve over noodles, toast, or fluffy mashed potato, and sprinkle with a little finely minced parsley for an attractive garnish.

Meredosia Farmers Begin Harvesting '49 Wheat Crop

Wheat harvest began in Morgan county Monday. Claude Jewsbury, manager of the A. B. Chrisman Grain company of Meredosia, received two loads of wheat yesterday.

Both samples were Pawnee; both tested well.

Leonard Staake brought in a load that weighed 60 pounds to the bushel and carried only 12% moisture.

Lawrence Fricke hauled in a small load that tested 59 pounds and 14% moisture.

Meredosia farmers traditionally begin the annual wheat harvest. The grain matures somewhat earlier on the sandy soil that prevails in that section.

Mr. Jewsbury said Pawnee was the dominant variety in his trade zone. Not much soft wheat has been planted in that area in the last few years.

Dr. Leonard Elstad Urges United Group In Opening Address

A plea for one all inclusive organization for teachers of the deaf to be called the United Instructors of the Deaf of America was the keynote of the president's address delivered by Dr. Leonard M. Elstad to a large audience at the opening session of the thirty-fourth convention of the American Instructors of the Deaf at the Illinois School for the Deaf auditorium Sunday evening.

"We are a small group in the educational field," said Dr. Elstad, "and should be working shoulder to shoulder instead of breaking up into ever-increasing specialized groups, each with its special interest. We, in the education of the deaf today, face a problem as big to us as the problem of the United Nations is to the world. We hear it said, 'In union there is strength' but we make no effort to unite."

"Our every effort should be to make each deaf child ready for life. For the deaf child it means living and working with hearing persons as well as the deaf. It has been roughly estimated that there are 100,000 deaf persons in the nation today as contrasted with the total of 148,000,000 persons living in the United States."

"It can very well be that the largest handicap the deaf person has to face is living with these 148,000,000 hearing persons who know little about the deaf. Facing this fact, isn't it wisdom for those of us who are in the best positions to encourage publications in behalf of the deaf to present a united front instead of confusing the public by our schisms and isms?"

Four Different Groups. Dr. Elstad referred to the four large groups and numerous small organizations in the profession each with its own officers, ideals and methods. As each group attempts to develop its own method, many opportunities are lost for a united effort in building a well rounded citizen. A great deal of this confusion is due to teachers who are lax in acquainting themselves and, in turn, their pupils, in all the publications, methods, schools and agencies which work for the benefit of the deaf with the result that some deaf students never learn of available helps.

Dr. Elstad suggested a united organization with a possible membership of 3,000 which would be able to support a central office to disseminate literature on summer courses, information on teacher recruitment, and public relations. He asked that officers of existing organizations be called together within the next two years to begin discussing a union of forces toward this end.

Historical Paper Presented. Dr. Elizabeth Peet of Gallaudet college presented a paper on 100 conventions which she had assembled from research in 33 volumes of the proceedings. The first convention, attended by six schools of the deaf, which the Illinois school was one, was called by her grandfather, Harvey Brindle Peet.

A number of interesting highlights were recalled by Miss Peet, such as, arguments against lady teachers, free passes to conventions by courtesy of the railroads, and discussion of religious instruction. As long ago as 1884 the term "and dumb" was Zeta Phi chapter. Delta Theta Tau stricken from the terminology yet sorority, to the national convention arguments concerning oral and manual methods continued through the years.

The address of welcome was given by Daniel T. Cloud, Superintendent of the Illinois School for the Deaf. He pointed out that this convention is the fifth to be held in Illinois.

The Reverend Reginald Harris of Trinity Episcopal church gave the invocation. Mrs. Rhoda Samore played the national anthem on the organ.

Recognition was given to the delegates from South Africa, those from Canada, and the fourteen schools having 100% membership in the convention.

Preceding the program the string ensemble of MacMurray college with Mr. Hugh Beggs, and Mr. and Mrs. Delwin Shaw presented several numbers.

Interpreters for the speakers were Stanley Roth, William J. McClure and Dr. Benson.

Carhart Addresses Convention. The convention continued through Monday with an opening address given by Dr. Raymond Carhart of Northwestern University. Dr. Carhart is professor of Audiology and Director of Hearing Programs at the University.

He explained to the convention recent developments in audiology and their relation to the education of deaf children. Dr. Carhart pointed out that audiology developed from lessons learned during World War II when eminent scientists and educators from many fields combined their talents to solve the hearing problems of the combat disabled service man.

Recent developments in the field are being applied to the education of deaf children. Dr. Cloud announced Monday morning that an acoustic laboratory especially equipped for auditory work will be ready for use this fall when school reconvenes. Seminars and technical demonstrations describing the latest development in deaf training were attended by many of the 1000 delegates at the Monday session.

The convention will close Friday.

The Bostons Fete Daughter Sunday At Dinner Party

Others present were: Mr. and Mrs. Russell McLaughlin, Mr. and Mrs. James F. Hopkins and Harold Bushnell.

To Attend National Meet. Mrs. Ray Campbell will leave Friday for Breezy Point, Minn., where she is being sent as a delegate from as 1884 the term "and dumb" was Zeta Phi chapter.
